

Selassie Back in Ethiopia to Rally Forces

BY DENNIS NEEDLE

LONDON (AP) — A broadcast over the Addis Ababa radio claimed today the rebel government set up in opposition to Emperor Haile Selassie has been thrown.

The broadcast, heard in Nairobi, Kenya, said the announcement was made on orders of Maj. Gen. Meril Mengesha, who had been described as a traitor Thursday by a rebel-controlled station.

The exact situation in Addis Ababa still was obscure. Resident correspondents had been unable to get news out.

But Haile Selassie himself, trying to fight for his throne and blaming "irresponsible persons" for the rebellion, apparently was in or near Addis Ababa, his capital.

A loyalist "Voice of Ethiopia" broadcast reported him back. A similar broadcast earlier from Mengesha, then transmitting over a clandestine station, had reported the "Lion of Judah" back in Ethiopia.

nearby French Somaliland French News Agency monitors heard the "Voice of Ethiopia" say army units faithful to the emperor had routed the insurgents.

The Ethiopian Embassy in London said the emperor, hurrying home from a state visit to Brazil, had left Khartoum, in the Sudan, adjacent to Ethiopia.

Before leaving Liberia to continue his flight homeward, Selassie expressed confidence peace will soon return to his northeast African country.

The confused situation in Addis Ababa, he said in a state-

Personal Incomes at Record Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The total personal income of Americans kept at a record rate in November, but there were several signs reflecting a business slowdown.

The Commerce Department reported Thursday that the rate for November was $409.5 billion a year, the same as in October.

But the department also reported: Wage and salary payments dipped by a half billion dollars; factory payrolls declined for the sixth month in a row; total employment and average hours worked decreased more than usual for this season; and contract construction payrolls dropped.

The department also said that unemployment compensation and other transfer payments jumped by $400 million during November. There also was a small increase in the payrolls of the retail trade and service industries.

Rightwingers Driving Out Laos Leftists

By PETER ARNETT

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Gen. Phoumi Nosavan's anti-Communists fought today to expel remaining leftist troops from the embattled capital of Laos. Artillery fire was reported raking the city, Vientiane.

The right-wing high command at Savannakhet broadcast a declaration that it will take two more days to clean out pockets of die-hard leftist resistance in Vientiane.

The broadcast said retreating pro-Communists are using private homes as hideouts from which to harass Phoumi's forces.

Planes Collide in Air Over New York in a Snowstorm, 124 Die

Man Held for Trying to Kill President-elect

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A 73-year-old little man with wavy white hair was held in $100,000 bond today on a charge that he intended to turn himself into a human bomb aimed at the life of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Richard Paul Pavlick, retired postal worker from Belmont, N.H., was given a hearing before U.S. Commissioner George L. Pink Thursday night. Pink said the bond was one of the highest ever set in this city.

Pavlick was arrested Thursday in Palm Beach and officers said they seized several sticks of dynamite, blasting caps, wiring and other paraphernalia in his automobile and motel room.

Assistant U.S. Dist. Atty. Robert Rust of Miami requested the $100,000 bond. John Marshall, a Secret Service agent from Miami, said Pavlick probably would be taken to Miami today.

Pavlick was arrested by Patrolman Lester Free for a traffic violation ended a nationwide hunt for the little ex-postal clerk. Agents

Store Sales Still Lagging Some

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The 8th Federal Reserve Bank reports that department store sales in the district the week ended Dec. 10 were three per cent below those of the similar week last year.

Louisville, Memphis and Little Rock each showed six per cent slumps while St. Louis was down one per cent and sales in seven smaller district cities were level with those of one year ago.

District sales for the four weeks ended Dec. 10 were seven per cent under those of the same period of 1959 while cumulative sales to date for this year are one per cent below last year.

Minister Is Held for 3 Robberies

MEMPHIS (AP) — A Memphis minister has been charged in three armed bank robberies which netted more than $17,000.

The robberies, all similar in that a lone gunman poked a pistol at bank employees, were committed at two Mississippi banks and one in west Tennessee.

One Falls Into an Apartment House Section

NEW YORK (AP) — Two big airliners, probing for a landing in a snowstorm, collided with a rear today, and plunged like flaming rockets into the city, with 124 believed dead.

The crashes fanned fire and terror on the ground.

One plane, a United Air Lines DCB, jet, plummeted into a heavily populated section of Brooklyn, selling an entire block of apartment buildings and shops ablaze. Walls were shattered and debris scattered like bomb fragments.

A church was demolished. It was the first crash in America of a pure jet carrying passengers. There were 43 persons aboard.

The other plane, a Trans World Airline Constellation, with 42 aboard, raked over the Miller Field section of Staten Island, and struck in harbor water. It also started fires in structures in the area.

Out of the 125 persons on the two planes, only one survivor was reported, an 11-year-old boy plucked from the wreckage of the crash in Brooklyn. Earlier reports

New Unwrinkled Grey Flannel

EVERY YEAR, grey flannel picks up the latest fashion points and makes the headlines as though it had only just been invented... which is why, no doubt, it is always in fashion. This 1960 tailored version with brass-buttoned blazer jacket, slim skirt and, just for variety, a ruffled cotton blouse, makes big fabric news. A dead ringer for the traditional-happy flannel, it's not flannel at all but a blend of 55% Zefran acrylic fiber and 45% wool, luxuriously soft, washable and ready for an infinitely long career in your wardrobe... dead set against wrinkles too!

A Sensational Evening Success

THIS CHARMING pattern, interpreted in luxuriously rich gold brocade, braid and soutache is so right, so rare and so very easy to make. The short sleeves, neckline, low waist line of the blouse and the slim skirt are all sharply defined with glittering trim. It's Vogue pattern No. 5105, featuring fashion's perfect finishing touch—a 9" Talon zipper for the skirt placket to give a smooth, flat hipline fit.

The bodyguard is made up of emperor had returned but did not say where.

The Ethiopian consul general in Nairobi, Kenya, said he had a report from Addis Ababa that soldiers loyal to the emperor surrounded the city and called on the rebels to surrender to avoid bloodshed.

In his broadcast, heard in Aden, Mengesha claimed the leaders of Wednesday's coup already were surrounded by "loyal Ethiopian forces". He ordered all citizens to help arrest the rebel leaders on pain of punishment as conspirators.

The Ethiopian ambassador-designate at Lagos, Nigeria, also claimed that Selassie had arrived in his homeland Thursday night.
Neither Mengesha nor the Ethiopian diplomat said where Selassie landed, and their reports were unconfirmed. Similar reports Thursday attributed to the Ethiopian Embassy in Rome proved false.

A dispatch from Fort Lamy, Chad, in central Africa, made it seem possible that the emperor was back in his kingdom, however. The dispatch said Selassie had landed at Fort Lamy Thursday night and continued his journey eastward, intending to land in Asmara, Eritrea, where forces loyal to him apparently are in control. There is a large air base there.

Cairo dispatches said radio communications with Asmara airport were suddenly cut today.

Selassie landed briefly at Roberts Field in Liberia late Thursday on a flight from Brazil after cutting short a state visit to that South American country. He took off again.

Violent gun battles raged Thursday in the narrow streets of Addis Ababa, the capital, and the Ethiopian radio said several civilians had been killed or wounded in an "inhuman massacre."

Reports trickling through broadcasts and from foreign diplomats in Ethiopia said there also had been hand-to-hand fighting in Asmara, capital of Eritrea, and Harar, capital of the country's largest province.

Ethiopian Ambassador Teferi
Chareou in Stockholm who said the revolutionary government was "non-Communist and neutral," reported that the fighting broke out when word spread that the emperor was hastening back home.
Gen. Merid Mengesha, Selassie's minister of defense, was reported by the Ethiopian Embassy in London to be massing troops loyal to the emperor outside the capital.

Gen. Mengesha claimed that a "few disloyal troops" of the emperor's bodyguard had forced Crown Prince Asfa Wassan 44, the emperor's eldest son, to assume figurehead leadership of the revolt and broadcast claims that all the armed forces were supporting the coup.

This was "entirely untrue," asserted Mengesha's proclamation, adding: "The army, air force and navy together are ready to destroy these criminals."

A broadcast by Addis Ababa Radio—held by forces of the new revolutionary government—subsequently described the general as a traitor.

It not only proclaimed the crown prince the country's new king, but also named Ras Imeru, 8, aristocratic cousin of the emperor and ambassador to the Soviet Union, as premier. Maj. Gen.
Mulugeta Buli also was named new army chief of staff.

"A group of bandits" influenced by Gen. Mengesha opened fire on peaceful civilians demonstrating for the new government, said the broadcast.

Dennis Wright, British ambassador, described the fighting so far as "moderate small arms and mortar fire."

British Parliament members were told there was no evidence of Communist interference in the

DOROTHY DIX

Mother Yearns for Prodigal Son

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

My husband and I are leaving Massachusetts to make our home in Florida next month. Our son hasn't been to see us for 13 years, though we never had a wrong word with him. Last February we celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary. Believe me it hurt when he didn't even send us a 10-cent postcard.

Last summer he visited my sister in Scotland. I sent him a clipping from your column in which you said, "No wonder—the young mustache a chee intolerably when you think what a weakling your son is that he lets a woman dominate him so completely he dare not even visit his mother who bore him!"

Our son has been married 23 years and in all that time never once remembered Mother on Father's Day. By chance I happened to stand next to him and his wife at the wedding of my other son's daughter. He whispered, "How are you Mother?"

I said, "Fine," in a whisper, so he wouldn't get into trouble. Should my daughter let him know when the good Lord takes us home? My husband feels if he don't care for us when we're dead, why should he when we're alive? Do you think he is right?

Unhappy Mother: Occupy yourself with doing all you can to mend this unhappy situation now. Let the future take care of itself. I detect a note of injury and self-pity in your letter which is understandable. But you must not give way to negative reactions if you want a reconciliation. Tear down the barrier of pride. Give your son and his wife a golden opportunity to make the coming holiday a real Christmas. Open the door by sending them a gift made with your own hands, writing them a loving note. Ignore the past and stress Jesus' wish for us all, "Peace on Earth, good will to men."

Dear Helen:

My husband is planning a hunting trip and insists that I, our teen-age daughter and 11-month-old baby go along. I tried to explain that it will be cold and hard to care for the baby. It also means taking our teen-ager out of the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burke.

Arriving this weekend to see the Poy Hammons family will be Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hammons and children of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Welsh and daughter of Little Rock.

Miss Julia Peck, a student at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., arrived Thursday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck.

Death Comes to Famous Singer

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Death caused by cancer has silenced the deep, rich voice of baritone John Charles Thomas, 68, one of America's most beloved singers.

The barrel-chested star of opera, concert stage and radio died in a coma.

He has the say about most things. I don't know whether to go to save an argument or insist on not causing ill-feeling. The only reason he wants us along is so he doesn't have to go alone. —D.C.

Dear D.C.: Most men use hunting trips as an excuse to get away from their families. It's a great compliment to you and the children that your husband wants you with him. Go. If it's humanly possible. You might consult your doctor first about the advisability of taking the baby, but if you have comfortable sleeping arrangements and a warm blanket, I doubt if a week in this fresh pure air of the woods would harm it. As for your teenage daughter, this Swiss Family Robinson adventure would be an education in itself.

Dear Helen:

I wrote some pretty nasty letters to someone in a fit of anger, two years ago. They threatened to sue me, but never did. I am still very upset over the letters. Can the people still prefer charges? I am 17. —L.

Dear L.: In most states, you could not now be sued. Talk this over frankly with your parents; they may want to talk to a lawyer.

I hate to sound preachy but I hope you take the old cliché, "Let this be a lesson to you," to heart.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful letters available. Write for "Ten Rules Will Help Oldersters Stay Young."

Because they ride easier they last longer, too. They take better care of payloads and they make a long day's work a lot more pleasant for the driver. All that—primarily because of Independent Front Suspension (I.F.S.). If you think it's stretching a point to attribute that many advantages to a suspension system, you haven't driven a new Chevy with I.F.S. Take the wheel and feel its road-leveling ride, its almost total absence of shimmy and wheel fight, its ease of steering even in the big rigs. Spend hours behind the wheel and you're not nearly as tired. You're not and neither is the truck. That independent suspension soaks up the worst shock and vibration—the kind that can twist steel metal and loosen joints and increase your maintenance costs. That's why Chevy trucks keep on working and saving for extra thousands of miles.

Stephens Kicks Bobcats Out of Tourney

By Vince Foster
Hope Star Sports Writer

Thursday night was a fatal one for both the senior and Junior Bobcats as they were both knocked out of two tournaments.

Stephens is supposed to take the Magnolia Tournament and they showed their style last night as they dropped Hope, 47-34. In the first period it seemed as if it was going to be a light game, since the Bobcats only trailed Stephens 12-11. The second quarter proved to be the fatal one for Hope as Stephens picked up 14 and held the Cats to 4, making the halftime score 25-15.

In the third period the Cats tried to edge up by outscoring them 11-3. But again in the fourth the Bobcats let up as they were scored 13-8, making the final score 47-34. Stephens beat Liberty in one of the other games of the tournament.

Larry Arnett proved to be the big gun for Hope with 8 points. Eddie Fry had 7, Robinson and Calhoun sank 6 each. Churchill dropped 5 and Powell 2. Thompson was high for Stephens with 13 points.

● The North Heights Tournament in Texarkana, Coach Hudson's Bobkittens were edged 30-27 by Jefferson Ave. of Texarkana. Things went fairly well until the second quarter when the Biggies set up a zone defense with a man playing Dan Jones man-to-man. Along with a cold shooting night, spelled defeat for the Kittens. Dan was high for the Kittens with 11.

● Tonight Hope's "B" team, Senior and Junior girls play host to Springfield in a triple-header. The first game begins at 6:30. Then Tuesday the Sr. girls and "B" boys take on Guernsey here.

Celtics Come Back in Win at Syracuse

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A get-tough policy by Boston Celtics Coach Red Auerbach may be paying dividends.

The Celtics, defending National Basketball Association champions, had lost two in a row and five of seven when Auerbach called a club meeting and laid down the law.

Then, before Thursday night's meeting with Syracuse, he called another closed door session with the team.

"We have been hustling in sports but not all the way," snapped Auerbach. "That will be changed from now on."

Result: The hard-running Celtics put together a 37-point burst in the third period that overcame a Syracuse halftime lead and pointed Boston toward a 115-105 victory.

The decision moved the Celtics to within a half game of Eastern Division leader Philadelphia.

DALLAS (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks may have more partisans in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 2 than any other Southwest Conference team in the bowl game's history.

Arkansas has set a record for ticket sales for its match with Duke—with more than 27,000 being snapped up by Razorback rooters.

It is the most any competing school ever has sold for the game.

Howard Grubbs, secretary-treasurer of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, said a few end zone seats still are available for the game.

Italian Team to Sydney Meet

SYDNEY (AP)—Italy's Davis Cup tennis team arrived for the challenge round today, relaxed and brimming with confidence.

They spent the last couple of days on a holiday in Melbourne.

"I think we will be more relaxed and in a better frame of mind against the Australians than we were against America," said Coach Jaroslav Drobný.

The team, which includes Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola, meets Australia Dec. 26-28.

Drobný said he had noticed no emotional or psychological let-down on the part of the Italians since their 3-2 upset triumph over the Americans at Perth. "And I do not anticipate any," he said.

"The boys are very loose and are very determined."

union—have voted overwhelmingly to strike Jan. 14 unless they get more pay and better contracts.

The delegates, representing 2,700 English soccer players, voted 600-14 to strike. The players are asking a guaranteed minimum wage of $42 a week and abolition of the maximum wage of $56 a week among other things.

The current minimum is $22.40 a week which the club officials have offered to increase without being specific.

College Game on Hope Court Monday Night

By Vince Foster
Hope Star Sports Writer

Monday night, Dec. 19 a college basketball game will be held in Jones Field House between East Texas Baptist and Henderson State Teachers at 8 p.m. This promises to be a good game and it will give everyone a chance to see a college game.

This is the first of three articles on this game, this one being about East Texas Baptist. The other two will be about Henderson and then the write-up of the game.

East Texas Baptist basketball squad is coached by R. C. Kennedy, who formerly coached at Texarkana. The tallest squad member is John Allen Ross at 6'5" from Blevins. The Captains are Morgan and Ingle. 6'1" is the average height of the starters and the average height of the team is 6'1½.

Everyone is urged to come and see this game if not for the enjoyment from it, to show these schools our boosters.

Weather Eyed by Liberty Bowl

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bud Dudley, president of the Liberty Bowl which will be held in Philadelphia Stadium Saturday, says opponents Penn State and Oregon should each take home between $50,000 and $60,000.

Dudley said some 17,000 tickets had been sold as of Thursday night. He said he expects a crowd of between 20,000 and 25,000 for the nationally televised game.

NBC is paying $100,000 for the TV rights.

Last year more than 31,000 persons attended the first Liberty Bowl game. Penn State and Alabama each got $98,000, according to Dudley.

He conceded heavy snows and subfreezing temperatures this week hurt the ticket sale.

The first Caucasian to see San Francisco Bay was Don Gaspar de Portola in 1769.

Cagers Pave Way for Bowl Festivities

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two major college basketball tournaments will begin tonight as a prelude to the heavy holiday bowl festivities, with the first round of the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh and the Birmingham (Ala.) Classic.

Colgate brings its 5-0 record against Pittsburgh (1-3), while unbeaten Tennessee (4-0) takes on Duquesne (4-1) in the Steel Bowl. At Birmingham, either Baylor or Alabama will end a losing streak as they meet in one game, while unbeaten Auburn (3-0) and Virginia Tech (2-0) tangle in the other game of the Classic. Baylor and Alabama have lost their first four games this season.

Pitt beat Duquesne in the Steel Bowl finals a year ago.

The firing was rather light Thursday night, with a few exceptions, such as Wichita's 83-64 victory over Washington State and Duke's 75-58 triumph over Clemson in an Atlantic Coast Conference contest.

Duke, which won the Birmingham Classic a year ago over Navy, ran up a 20-point lead several times in the second half against Clemson. Duke ranked No. 8 in The Associated Press poll, will do its holiday playing in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 29-31.

Niagara University solved John Carroll's zone defense in the first half, then went on to remain undefeated by winning their third straight, 84-54.

Western Kentucky, beaten only by Louisville in the Blue Grass tournament finals last week, made its record 6-1 by downing Morehead (Ky.) 83-77 to take the Ohio Valley Conference lead.

Charlie Osborne scored 22 points for Western Kentucky, and Ed Noe had 23 for the losers.

Memphis State remained undefeated by breaking a 9-9 all tie in the last five minutes to defeat Brigham Young 75-72 for its fourth straight win. Wayne Yates scored 22 points and Frank Snyder for Memphis, while BYU's Bruce Barton hit 21.

Boston College's 5-game unsullied string came to an abrupt end as Brown pulled a 70-70 upset with Forrest Broman pacing the winners on 24 points.

In the Bluebonnet bowl double-header at Houston, Dave Miller's long corner shot in the last two seconds of overtime produced a 60-58 Oklahoma State victory over Texas A&M. It was State's fourth victory against one loss.

Princeton and Rutgers were tied 8-8 after regulation time, but Tom Adams' layup with seven seconds to go in overtime brought the Tigers a 91-92 victory. It was Princeton's 14th straight victory over Rutgers since the 1953-54 season.

Bear Thinks Team Should Be Underdog

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Paul (Bear) Bryant says his Alabama Crimson Tide should be a underdog for Saturday's Bluebonnet Bowl game with the Texas Longhorns.

Bryant and his 47-man squad arrived Thursday to find themselves one-point favorites. The same point spread posted by oddsmakers the day the two teams were selected for the second annual Bluebonnet classic.

The Texas team was to fly to Houston after a final workout in Austin, arriving just in time for tonight's bonfire rally honoring the two teams.

Bryant said, "I think Texas has more speed than we do. I think they are a little better—not a whole lot but about a touchdown."

Bryant was reminded he made a similar statement before Alabama ended its regular season with a 3-0 victory over Auburn.

"I sure did, but that was the greatest game I've ever seen as far as team effort is concerned," he replied.

Alabama finished with an 8-1 record, losing only to Tennessee after being tied - by Tulane.

McVaine said he was not mo-

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—U.S. Consul General Robinson McVaine reported today that he was held for two hours by rebel soldiers in Stanleyville after a rumor spread that Belgian paratroopers were landing in Oriental province.

McVaine returned to Leopoldville Tuesday night from a two-day trip with other Western consular officials to look to the safety of white inhabitants threatened with reprisals for the imprisonment of ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba.

He looked toward the house, saw a light in the kitchen window. He went up and knocked. "Bart Wagner," he said, and added in a low voice, "Catherine."

She swung open the door and handed him the sack of tobacco. "I saved it for you."

"Thank you," he began to make a cigarette, his eyes on his work.

"The coffee's hot," she said. He finished the coffee, lifted a lid on the stove, and dropped the cigarette stub in. "Those four mules grazing behind the shed yesterday afternoon - they had harness marks."

"They're the ones. He went out, and found the mules grazing. He pushed them toward the open corral. They went in, and he threw them a few forksful of hay. He went back to the shed, lit the lantern, and looked over the harness. It was patched but it might hold. He had picked the biggest animals for wheel positions, and he backed them in place. He harnessed the other two and hitched them to a doubletree fastened to the end of the wagon tongue. He set the brake on the wagon and went inside.

She gave him a stack of nine cakes as big as the plate, and he poured bear oil over them. "Mighty good cakes," he said five minutes later.

"I'm glad you think so." He reached for his hat. "Shall I charge the stuff in Clarendon?"

"I have the money." She brought a roll of somewhat worn bills of small denominations out of her apron pocket, and carefully counted out $90. "You may not need that much," she said hopefully.

He nodded. "You're a gambler - trusting me with this much of your money."

"I'm not worried," she said. "Anyway, I still have the three-year-olds - and there are always posts to be cut. The JA will take all the posts I can deliver."

"Why haven't the outlaws taken your three?" he asked.

"So far," she said, "they've done most of their stealing from the big ranches - I suppose because they figure the big people won't miss them. It's only when they find unbranded stuff that they steal from the smaller spreads."

She picked up the money from the table and put it in his big hand. Then suddenly and unexpectedly she looked up at him, and he saw fear and uncertainty in the soldiers, who held him until they made sure he was not a paratrooper in disguise. He is from Doyntown, Pa.

THE STORY: Bart Wagner has agreed to help Catherine Lewis run her lonely ranch in the Panhandle. Her husband was murdered by outlaws and she has been trying to maintain the place herself.

CHAPTER V

"It was still dark when he awoke. He moved to a sitting position in any easy motion, sat there for a moment, and listened. He heard nothing. He got out from under the quilt and put on his boots and hat, then his gun belt.

"He reached in his vest pocket, but the tobacco sack was missing.

Rights Group Eyes Race for Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The National States Rights Party may enter a candidate in the 1962 gubernatorial race in Arkansas as well as the 1964 presidential race, Mrs. Edson L. Bishop of Little Rock, the party's national vice chairman, said Wednesday.

Mrs. Bishop said she has asked Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett for an opinion as to whether the party must hold a primary and whether it will have to circulate petitions to get presidential electors on the 1964 ballot.

She said the party got over six per cent of the state's presidential votes in the November general election and believes that no petitions will have to be circulated for the next general election.

Act 306 of 1959, the "free elections" law, provides that any party receiving less than 5 per cent of the vote in the previous elections must circulate petitions to get candidates on the ballot.

Mrs. Bishop said she believes the party would have to hold a primary in order to qualify for gubernatorial candidate.

She said national officials have told state parties to enter state races, but she said the group would need a better organization in order to enter candidates in county and local races. However, Mrs. Bishop said the state committee would begin weekly meetings in 1961.

operated farm implement stores at Doniphan and another Missouri town. He said the businesses had gone bankrupt.

Officers here didn't know details of the false pretense charge.

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — A Missouri man, arrested here for investigation, will be turned over to Poplar Bluff, Mo., officers on a charge of obtaining money by false pretense, police say.

Assistant Police Chief Homer Goff identified the man as J. W. Noe of Doniphan, Mo.

Goff said he was told that Noe's wife and three children disappeared recently from their home.

Noe was alone when he was arrested here. Goff quoted Noe as saying that his wife and children left Doniphan Dec. 6 or 7 in an automobile and that he hadn't heard from them since.

Noe was arrested when he returned to his parked automobile by two officers who had the car under surveillance because of a large quantity of auto supplies and other merchandise.

Goff said that until recently Noe

Raps Spread of U. S. Socialism

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansans had better get busy if they expect to save the world from Anderson, a Nashville, Tenn., editor, and publisher, told the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night.

Anderson, who edits and publishes Farm and Ranch magazine, told the chamber's annual banquet that too many people have adopted a neutral stand.

He attacked the spread of socialism, federal aid and social ism and predicted President-elect John F. Kennedy would lead the nation even further down the road to socialism.

W. F. Rector, outgoing chamber president, told the gathering that a group of Arkansans, including Winthrop Rockefeller, had planned to chase the East Texas Engineering and Manufacturing Co. and would merge it with Hamlin Products, Inc., of Little Rock.

Hamlin Products manufactures foundation ventilators.

Rector said the merger would boost the firm's sales from $1 million to $3 million annually.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Fire swept through a rural home at nearby Westville early today, killing a mother and six of her nine children.

The father and two other children were injured and taken to Harrisburg Hospital. Another child was staying with neighbors.

Firefighters were hindered by the near-zero temperatures. Chief Charles J. Shank Jr. said the family was that of Mrs. Neff Walker, both 36.

In addition to Mrs. Walker, the children killed by the blaze were a son, Jimmy, 9, and five daughters, Mary, 13; Helen, 10; Dianna, 5; Louise, 3 and Irene, 1.

With Walker in Harrisburg hospital were his sons Robert, 8, and Wayne, 5. The younger child was reported in satisfactory condition with burns. Walker said Robert was in satisfactory condition, suffering smoke inhalation and minor burns.

The ninth child, Martha, 12, and a family boarder, David Cramer, 17, were with neighbors.

Shank theorized that a stove on the first floor of the two-story frame house may have exploded, causing the fire. The home burned to the ground.

Faubus to Offer Some Proposals

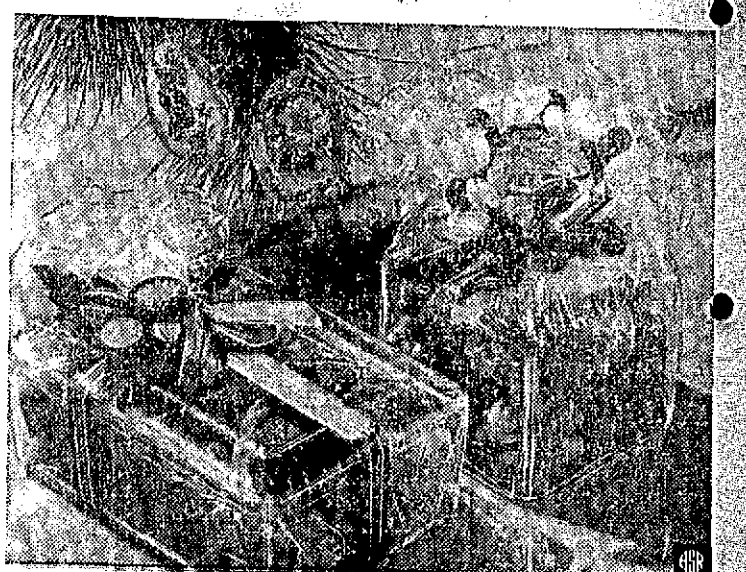

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that he would propose at least "two or three" legislative matters in his inaugural speech which will come before the Legislative Council.

He said he intended to "say" them for the speech.

Faubus' fourth inauguration is scheduled for Jan. 10.

The 1961 General Assembly will open the day before.

L. R. Policy Protested by Negroes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Negro group has formally protested the refusal of the Little Rock City Manager Board to allow the city-owned Dunbar Community Center to be used for a meeting at which money would be raised to help Negroes involved in sit-in litigation.

The Greater Little Rock Citizens Committee said in a letter to the board Wednesday.

"We are unalterably opposed to your attitude toward the minority group of this city as it relates to use of the building; and we further express our profound dissatisfaction with your policy of not permitting us to have a meeting at said building unless the purposes of the meeting are in keeping with your racial attitudes."

The letter was signed by the Rev. Roland Smith, chairman of the organization.

"I noted that a segregationist organization has been allowed to use another city-owned building."

"We are cognizant of the fact that you have allowed the White Citizens Council to use Robinson City Auditorium for meetings of their organization, but you deny us the privilege to use the Dunbar Community Center as citizens of this city."

Dr. Ralph D. Abernathy of Montgomery, Ala., was to speak at the center Sunday, but the meeting was reset for a church when the board said the center could not be used.

American between 20 and 35 are about two inches taller and five pounds heavier than their counterparts in 1900.

Actor Dies in Switzerland

SOLOTHURN, Switzerland (AP)—American actor-director Gregory Ratoff, 63, died in the Solothurn Citizens' Clinic early today of blood cancer.

Ratoff, who wrote many of the original scripts of stage plays and films he directed, was born on April 20, 1897, in Petrograd, now Leningrad, in Russia, where he began his stage career after finishing commercial college. He went to New York in 1932 to appear on Broadway.

In more recent years he produced and directed the stage hit "All About Eve" and several films, among them "Black Magic," "The Heat's On," and "Operation X."

Before the war he acted in many Broadway plays including "Blossom Time," "Tenth Avenue," and "Castles in the Air."

Ratoff had been living in Milan, Italy, with his wife, Maria Kostas, a well known singer. He was stricken last fall and came to Switzerland for treatment by Prof. Sven Moeschlin, one of Switzerland's leading blood disease specialists, who diagnosed his illness as leukemia.

Winner of Rotary Award Announced

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—Mary F. Cox of Morrilton has been named winner of a Rotary Foundation Fellowship, and will study biochemistry at a university in Asia during the 1961-62 school year.

Miss Cox was one of 118 fellowship winners announced Wednesday.

The Rotary grants, which average over $2,600, permit recipients to study abroad for a year.

Miss Cox is a 1956 graduate of Morrilton High School and this year received a bachelor of arts degree from Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo. She is now working toward a master's degree at Washington University in St. Louis.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cox.
